Faculty of ICT, Mahidol University: Email Grading Rubric

Updated: 02/11/2016

The following grading rubric will be used to evaluate your ability to generate, develop, logically organize, write and polish your ideas and writing in a properly structured and grammatically correct manner, which is appropriate for the intended purpose.

Evaluation Criteria	2 Meets or Exceeds professional expectations	1 Fails to meet professional expectations	0 Missing, Unrelated, or completely unprofessional	Score /28
Email Format
• Your Email Address	Includes your full email address and display name.	Includes only your email address OR display name	Fails to include your email address AND display name.	/1
• Receivers Email Address	Includes receivers full email address and display name.	Includes only receivers email address OR display name.	Fails to include receivers full email address AND display name.	/1
• Subject	Includes a clear and appropriate (specific) email subject line. Grammatically accurate.	Includes an appropriate (general) email subject line. Minor grammatical inaccuracies.	Fails to include a subject line, or subject is inappropriate. Grammar prevents comprehension	/2
• Salutation	Formal, appropriate greeting to the Receiver/Reader Relevant to the relationship between you and the receiver.	Generic/Appropriate greeting to the Receiver/Reader No consideration of the relationship between you and the receiver.	Reader incorrectly targeted, or not identified at all. Improper use of title & name.	/1
• Valediction	Formal, appropriate close which follows professional conventions.	Generic/Appropriate close which follows professional conventions.	Fails to include an acceptable complementary close.	/1
Email Content
• Opening	Clearly refers to the previous contact with the reader, and expresses the purpose of writing.	Previous contact, OR purpose of writing is not clearly identified or expressed.	Fails to refer to previous contact, AND fails to indicate the reason for writing.	/2
• Main Message	Specific reference to the situation, and acknowledgment of the request for information/assistance.	General reference to the situation, and basic acknowledgment of the request for information/assistance.	No reference to the situation, and fails to acknowledge the request for information/assistance.	/2
Detail:	Specific fulfillment of the request, and the requested information fully satisfied. Highly appropriate description of the requested information which is completely accurate. Contains analysis of data with appropriate vocabulary, which fully satisfies the request.	General fulfillment of the request and requested information provided in a simplistic response. Generic description of the requested information, which is mostly accurate.. Contains basic analysis of data with appropriate vocabulary, which partially satisfies the request.	No fulfillment of the requested information. Fails to focus on answering the question. Fails to fully include the requested information, and may contain multiple inaccuracies. Fails to include analysis of data, or fails to use appropriate vocabulary. Fails to satisfy the request, or is completely inappropriate.	/4
• Closing	Next contact/message follow-up is fully clear and appropriate.	Next contact/message follow-up is unclear OR not entirely appropriate.	Fails to mention the next contact/message follow-up. Unclear AND inappropriate.	/2
Writing Style • Professional Vocabulary • Formal/Polite	Consistently correct and appropriate use of business style vocabulary. Fully polite & formal (professional)	Some appropriate use of business style vocabulary. Some informal language used. Mostly polite & formal (professional)	Uses inappropriate business style vocabulary. Impolite & informal (unprofessional)	/4
Layout/Organization	Content of the message is organized in clearly defined sections. Appropriate use of margin alignment and line spacing. Readability is high due to fully appropriate use of separate paragraphs.	Content of the message demonstrates some consideration of organization of ideas. Contains minor issues with format/layout (margin/line spacing) Readability enables the reader to follow the general sequence of ideas.	Content of the email demonstrates little or no thought of readability. Content is indented. No line spaces between paragraphs. Content seems disjointed and is not easy to follow.	/2
Mechanics • Grammar • Punctuation • Spelling	Consistently maintains a high degree of grammatical accuracy; errors are rare and difficult to spot. Spelling is generally accurate.	Spelling and punctuation are accurate enough to be followed most of the time. Some errors occur, but it is clear what the writer is trying to express.	Uses some simple structures correctly, but still repeatedly makes basic mistakes. Some mistakes prevent comprehension.	/4

TEACHER COMMENTS

/28